MA IN CRITICAL THEORY AND CREATIVE RESEARCH SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIAL

The supplemental portion of the application to the MA in Critical Theory and Creative Research program explores creativity, critical thought, sense-based intelligence, ethical vision, and the ability to combine aesthetic and socio-political critique in innovative ways. On the next page are twelve images, static and moving. Please select two (each image is clickable to a web page) and submit a critique for each of them. One of the two must be written—150 words maximum—while the other can take a visual form or a mixed visual-verbal form. Critiques should be submitted via pnca.slideroom.com along with the other application materials.

Critiques may be submitted as:
